

I am writing to ask that Indiana's laws regarding telemarketing and other unwanted calls be left alone. I don't think it's right to have to pay an extra fee to the phone company to stop these calls. In my opinion telemarketing and solicitation calls should be against the law completely, but until that time Indiana has the next best thing.
Please leave our State's law the way it is on this issue. Thank you.